

1. MONOLOGUE

PIRMOJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Society & Authenticity

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

The fear of public criticism pushes many young people to adjust their opinions, even when silence or disagreement would demonstrate greater strength of character.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why can the need to fit in be stronger than the desire to be honest with others or true to oneself, and how would you evaluate this?
 - How can people balance the need to belong with the need to stay authentic, and what might happen if this balance is lost?
- ❖ Additional question: Is it sometimes a good idea to act like other people in a group? Why or why not?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Mistakes & Growth

Task: Read the quotation and answer the questions below.

“No matter how many mistakes you make or how slow you progress, you are still way ahead of everyone who isn’t trying.”

-Tony Robbins, American writer

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why are many young people afraid of making mistakes, and how does this affect their motivation and willingness to try new things?
 - How can accepting mistakes as part of progress help young people develop confidence and achieve long-term goals, and why would these ideas be effective?
- ❖ Additional question: Do you think effort is always more important than talent when trying to succeed? Why or why not?

DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes

Topic: Living Fast: Efficiency or Exhaustion?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.
