

1. MONOLOGUE

PIRMOJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Freedom & Responsibility

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Freedom gives people the right to choose, but responsibility determines the results of those choices.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why do people sometimes focus on their rights more than their responsibilities, and how would you evaluate this attitude?
 - How can responsibility be promoted in online communication without limiting freedom of expression, and why would this approach be effective?
- ❖ Additional question: Is adulthood defined more by responsibility or by freedom? Why?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes*Topic:* Books & ScreensTask:* Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Although literacy, understood as the ability to read and write, is now widespread, it does not always seem to lead to deeper thinking or greater understanding.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
- Why has reading books lost priority for some young people, and how does this influence their ability to concentrate and think critically?
- How can schools encourage students to read more carefully while still using digital technology, and why would this work?

❖ Additional question: Do you enjoy reading? Why or why not?

2. DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes*Topic:* Working While Studying: Earning Money or Risking Your Grades?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.