

1. MONOLOGUE

PIRMOJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Discussion & Understanding

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Mark Twain once said that arguing with a fool only shows that both people may be acting foolishly.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why do discussions often turn into competitions rather than exchanges of ideas, and how can this affect communication between people?
 - What could help people have more constructive discussions, especially when they strongly disagree?
- ❖ Additional question: How relevant do you think this topic is for young people today? Why or why not?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Technology & Attention

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

With notifications and online content always available, maintaining attention has become a growing challenge in everyday life.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - In what ways can technology affect people's ability to concentrate, and how significant do you think this effect can be?
 - How could people protect or improve their attention in this digital world, and why would your suggestion be effective?
- ❖ Additional question: Do you think technology affects everyone's attention in the same way? Why or why not?

2. DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes

Topic: Graffiti Culture: Vandalism or Art?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.
