

1. MONOLOGUE

PIRMOJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Motivation & Rewards

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Just as animals can be trained through rewards, human behaviour is often influenced in similar ways.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why do modern education systems rely so strongly on external rewards such as grades and praise, and how does this influence young people's attitudes towards learning and making an effort?
 - How can people stay motivated without relying on rewards, and why do you think your approach would be effective?
- ❖ Additional question: Do you think people work harder when they are rewarded, or when they are personally interested? Why?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Traditions & Change

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Holding on to traditions too strongly can slow down necessary change in society, especially when established practices are no longer suited to modern realities.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why do traditions continue to influence societies today, and how significant do you think this influence is?
 - How could younger generations play a role in reshaping traditions, and why would this be important?
- ❖ Additional question: Do you think keeping traditions will become more or less important in the future? Why?

2. DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes

Topic: Online Content: Entertainment or Influence?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.
