

1. MONOLOGUE

PIRMOJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Freedom & Choice

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Some people believe that requiring eighteen and nineteen year-olds to make important choices about their careers is too early.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why can having many choices make decisions more difficult, and how significant do you think this difficulty can be?
 - How could people learn to manage choices more effectively, and why would this help?
- ❖ Additional question: Do you think young people today have too many choices about their future? Why or why not?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Image & Authenticity

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Some people argue that in today's world, authenticity is often expressed through creating an image that stands out rather than fits in.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why can a strong focus on public image influence how authentic people feel, and how significant do you think this influence can be?
 - What could help young people express themselves more honestly, and why do you think this matters for their identity?
- ❖ Additional question: Do you think it is becoming harder for young people to be authentic in modern society? Why?

2. DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes

Topic: Making Mistakes: Part of Learning or Sign of Failure?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.
