

1. MONOLOGUE

PIRMOJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Stability & Progress

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

As modern life becomes faster and more focused on innovation, stability is sometimes seen as less important.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why can rapid change shape people's attitudes and behaviour, and how would you evaluate its influence?
 - Which changes in today's world are genuinely needed for progress, and why do such changes matter?
- ❖ Additional question: Do different generations respond to rapid change in similar ways? Why or why not?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Sport & Purpose

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

It is sometimes argued that sport does not build character, but reveals personal qualities that already exist.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why do many people associate sport with physical appearance, and how would you assess the effects of this view?
 - How can sport be promoted in a way that focuses more on health and well-being, and why would this approach be effective?
- ❖ Additional question: Do professional athletes influence how young people think about sport today? Why or why not?

2. DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes

Topic: Free Time: Productive Use or Genuine Rest?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.
