As musical trends change quickly, traditional genres like folk music are becoming less present in young people's daily lives.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why do people turn to music to express themselves, and how can it affect their sense of identity?
 - How can music education support students' personal development, and what long-term effects might it have?
- ❖ Additional question: Do you think the popularity of a song determines its value today? Why or why not?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Productivity & Well-being

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

It is often said that people today focus too much on doing more, instead of deciding what really matters.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why does the drive for efficiency influence how people organise their time and priorities?
 - How might people achieve a better balance between productivity and well-being, and why would this balance be effective?
- ❖ Additional question: Could future generations place greater importance on efficiency than well-being? Why?

2. DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes

Topic: Exam-Focused Education: Preparing for Life or Passing Exams?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.
