Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Travelling abroad is often seen as exciting, yet many people overlook the value and beauty of exploring their own country.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why does social media strongly influence travel choices, and how does this affect the quality of people's experiences?
 - How could people be encouraged to travel more within their own country, and why would this lead to more meaningful experiences?
- ❖ Additional question: Can a real understanding of other ways of life exist without direct travel? Why or why not?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Technology & Human Bonds

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

As digital systems become more capable of offering support and interaction, the role of human bonds may begin to shift.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - What qualities make human relationships meaningful, and why do you think these qualities are important in people's lives?
 - How might people use technology to reinforce rather than replace human bonds, and why would this approach be effective?
- ❖ Additional question: How relevant is the growing role of technology in relationships for people your age compared to older generations? Why?

2. DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes

Topic: Path to Success: Chance or Effort?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.
