Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Many important decisions must be made without knowing exactly what the outcomes will be.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why does the search for certainty influence people's choices, and how would you evaluate the importance of this influence?
 - Why should young people be encouraged to explore new possibilities, and how might this contribute to their personal development?
- ❖ Additional question: Do you think attitudes towards risk are shaped more by personal experience or by the influence of others? Why?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Laziness & Success

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Modern life often encourages people to stay busy, even when being constantly productive may not always be beneficial.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
- Why do some people allow laziness to prevent them from taking actions that could improve their lives, and how would you evaluate the consequences of such behaviour?
- How can people overcome habits that stop them from making progress towards their goals, and why would these strategies be effective?

❖ Additional question: Can a lazy person still be successful? Why or why not?

2. DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes

Topic: Honesty: Openness or Silence?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.
