

1. MONOLOGUE

PIRMOJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Nature & Connection

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

People tend to notice the problems affecting nature more than the benefits nature provides.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why do environmental issues sometimes feel less relevant to people's daily lives, and how would you evaluate this attitude?
 - How can individuals become more aware of the impact their daily choices have on the environment, and why would this be effective?
- ❖ Additional question: Can small individual actions make a meaningful difference to environmental problems? Why or why not?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Films & Influence

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Some people argue that many successful films are designed primarily to attract large audiences rather than to provide lasting value.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
- Why can films influence people's thoughts and emotions so strongly, and how would you evaluate this influence?
- How can cinemas remain attractive to young people in the age of streaming platforms, and why would your ideas be effective?

❖ Additional question: Do people expect too much from films? Why or why not?

2. DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes

Topic: Decision-Making: Logic or Intuition?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.
