

1. MONOLOGUE

PIRMOJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Freedom & Expectations

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

Becoming an adult often increases young people's freedom, but not necessarily their independence.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why do many young adults find it difficult to make decisions entirely on their own, and how would you evaluate this influence?
 - How could young people balance their own goals with the expectations of others, and why would this approach be effective?
- ❖ Additional question: Is it possible to be independent while still accepting advice from others? Why or why not?

1. MONOLOGUE

ANTROJO POROS KANDIDATO

Time: 3–4 minutes

Topic: Sport & Values

Task: Read the statement and answer the questions below.

The true value of sport may lie in the character it reveals rather than the physical ability it displays.

- What is your reaction to the content of the statement? Justify your answer by explaining why.
 - Why do some people see sport mainly as a way to improve their appearance, and what are the strengths or weaknesses of this view?
 - How could people be encouraged to view sport as part of a healthy lifestyle, and why might this approach be effective?
- ❖ Additional question: What qualities make an athlete a positive example for young people? Why?

2. DIALOGUE

KANDIDATŲ POROS

Time: 4–5 minutes

Topic: Information: Speed or Accuracy?

Situation: Together with your partner, you are taking part in a creative lab for young content creators. You are working to prepare an educational podcast that addresses the topic above and why it is relevant to your generation. The podcast should last ten minutes and offer practical and convincing advice.

Task: In your discussion, exchange the following information:

- consider why the topic matters,
- explore both perspectives on the topic,
- agree on at least one piece of advice young people could follow, and justify why this advice would be helpful.

Candidate 1 starts the conversation.
